

INNISFREE MATH CAMP

Skills Development & Recreational Program

Statement of Purpose.

To provide a residential program for students, aged 12 to 15 years, interested in enrichment or remedial instruction in mathematics, balanced with supervised recreation.

Goals.

1. To identify areas for academic growth and enrichment and to offer assistance to the remedial student, in the area of mathematics.
2. To create a community setting conducive to individual social awareness and responsibility.

Staff.

- State certified teachers.
- All interns and counselors are college students.

Student Participants.

- Ages 12 to 15 years.
- Maximum enrollment 35 students.

Location.

- Milanville, Pennsylvania (at Skinners Falls on the Upper Delaware River)

Dates.

- Sunday, July 1 to Saturday, August 18, 1984 (seven weeks).

Mathematics Program Design.

- Identification of areas for potential academic growth.
- Individually prescribed instructional program.
- Small tutorial sessions.
- Daily supervised study.
- Evaluation report sent to parents and sponsoring school.

Recreational Activities.

Organized:

- Bowling*
- Canoe trips*
- Horseback riding*
- Movies*
- Nature hikes
- Rafting
- Swimming
- Tubing
- Volleyball

Individual:

- Basketball
- Box hockey
- Fishing
- Hiking
- Library
- Music
- Ping pong
- Pool table

*Participation optional; additional fee.

For more information, contact:

INNISFREE MATH CAMP
% Bud or Ann Rue
P.O. Box 47
Milanville, PA 18443-0047
(717) 729-7762